Even in such backward branches as copper and steel, there is every evidence that the turn has come. Copper metal is now firmly held at over 18c., which explains the sharp advances in leading shares the cast week. We are still of the opinion that this group of securities offers comparatively safe prospects for combined speculation and inestment since a return of dividends to rmer levels is only a question of time.

June 22, 525,000 pounds domestic fleece, 3,-350,000 territory, 1,500,000 pounds Texas.

This series will be followed by a sale of 7,000,000 pounds of carpet wool in Philadelphia, June 28.

Will Hold Wool Clippings.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 15.—Belleving that present conditions are not favorable to marketing their stock, memorable to marketing their stock, members of the Jefferson County Sheep Growers Association intend to hold clippings of more than 15,000 pounds of wool until some time after July 1, when it is expected they will be able to obtain higher prices.

Convention of Dress Trade.

According to a statement by David N. Mosessohn, executive director of the Associated Dreas Industries of America, it is expected that more than 1,000 manufacturers of women's, misses' and children's dresses from all sections of the country will attend the convention to be held in New York in the fall under the auspices of that organisation.

It is said that this convention will mark the first one of its kind ever held in the garment industries. The convention probably will last two days.

Felt for Fall Hate.

Felt is making its appearance in many of the new lines being displayed in the wholesale millinery trade here and manufacturers believe that this material will be a big item for fall.

Designers Here Ignore French Style Dictum

ESPITE the fact that French stylists have placed great stress on the side fullness in women's apparel for fall, there are indications in the cloak and sut trade here that manufacturers will not adopt the style to any great extent. Few of the better houses are exting in accordance with the suggestion, the stylists here usually designing their new models along "atraight" lines.
